LETTER FROM OUR PASTORS

Dear Church Family,
Our leadership team could not be more grateful and excited about the future of Southwest Community Church (SWCC). As we look to 2025, we are filled with great expectations for all God has in store for us. The Scriptures declare that God comes “to give you a future and a hope.” We are confident God has amazing plans ahead—not only for our church but also for our city, our region, and the world beyond.

Our prayer for SWCC echoes Paul’s words in Colossians 1, that we may be “filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding” so that we may “walk in a manner worthy of the Lord.” As we press forward, keeping Jesus at the center and staying rooted in the gospel, we believe our church will see many people experience salvation and new life through faith in Jesus Christ.

May our lives be a living testimony to the power of prayer and the unending goodness of God. May we honor the name of Jesus Christ in all we do and seek to raise up true disciples in our community, impacting the world for eternity. The future of SWCC is bright, and we believe the best is yet to come!
We genuinely love each and every one of you.

Blessings,
Pastor Alan & Pastor Josh

FIRST FRUITS OFFERING

On Sunday, February 2nd, we will make a faith commitment for our Upon This Rock Capital Campaign. The purpose of a First Fruits Offering is to establish a weekend when the church begins the giving process.

The idea of "First Fruits" comes from the Old Testament when the farmers would bring the first produce of the land or the shepherds would bring the first lamb as an offering to the Lord.

"Honor the Lord with your wealth, with the first fruits of all your crops"

Proverbs 3:9
